THE FACE OF CATASTROPHIC INJURY & WRONGFUL DEATH LAW
ROSENBLUM & REISMAN >>

Rosenblum & Reisman is a boutique personal injury firm that focuses its practice on catastrophic injury and wrongful death cases. The firm limits the number of cases they take to make sure they can devote the time and resources that each case deserves. It has been their experience that when an attorney is willing to spend the time and money necessary to prepare a case for trial with experts, research, discovery and technology, the chances of settling that case before trial increase significantly. However, it is their reputation and experience as a firm willing and able to try lawsuits that has enabled them to maximize recoveries for their clients. The office also includes a criminal defense attorney who has twenty years of experience defending the rights of the accused.
